ANOTHER FAIR!

Seattle, metropolis of the great Northwest, is also talking world's fair. Exposition enthusiasts there are stump-thumping for a world's fair in 1942 to celebrate, in addition to Seattle's centennial, the completion of Coulee Dam, the Alaska Highway and Bonneville Dam. Theme of the proposed exposition would be "The Electrical Empire."

I. Q. CONTROVERSY

A little group of psychologists at the University of Iowa, led by George Dinsmore Stoddard, have upset the fixed planets in the heavens of most orthodox psychologists who believe that people are born with a certain degree of intelligence and are doomed to go through life with the same I. Q.

Last week, before a conference of distinguished educators in New York City, Iowa's Stoddard came forth with astounding proofs supporting the new theory that an individual's I. Q. can be changed.

AUSTRALIA

Australia—often in the agricultural and financial news but seldom in the "war-scare" headlines, has apparently capitulated to the general world war fever. The national defense there is being improved by construction of the largest radio station in the British Empire.

It will be completed in 1940 and will provide day and night communications with all warships in Australian and adjacent waters and with the naval radio stations throughout the world.

PACT WITH CANADA

Sometime next week, according to latest reports from Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada, the long-awaited new Canadian-American trade treaty is to be signed at Washington. Details of the new pact will be announced simultaneously at Washington, D. C. and Ottawa.

Tanforan Fall Meet To Open

Historic Tanforan, birthplace of modern California racing, opens its doors Tuesday, November 15 for its fall run of 25 days, closing December 17.

John W. Marchbank recently announced the Tanforan stakes list, numbering seven special events, to be decided during the meeting. Featured classic is the $10,000 added San Francisco handicap, oldest stake on the entire California list. First offered in 1928 the San Francisco handicap has been frequently renewed, its more recent victors including Primulus and Whickee. The latter captured first honors a year ago.

Other time honored tests on the Tanforan stakes program are the $5000 Lassie stakes, for two year old fillies, bred in California, and the A. B. Spreckels handicap, for juveniles, at six furlongs.

The San Francisco handicap is down for decision on closing day December 17.

Tanforan is making strong bids for eastern stables and numerous handicap performers from the Maryland, New England and New York turf are slated to join the western thoroughbred colony in November after the eastern season is finished. Noted strings destined for Santa Anita winter racing are coming to Tanforan, stall reservations indicate.

Nominations for the San Francisco handicap close on December 3.

Tanforan boasts ideal conditions for horses. This track is the home training grounds of the valorous Seabiscuit, and here the Belmont Futurity winner, Porters Mite and the Eastern Shore victor, Time Alone, were developed. Horsemen pronounce the mile strip in perfect shape. It was carefully resurfaced during the summer.

A complete travel service bureau for motorists will be maintained at the 1939 California World's Fair by National Automobile Club.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Daly City Chamber of Commerce is arranging a gala Christmas program for local children. Peter Markovich is chairman of the Christmas committee. Details of the affair will be announced on December 1.

RUDY VALLEE HERE

The coast's greatest Automobile Show featuring Rudy Vallee, famous radio and cinema star in a personal appearance and the first full showing of the 1939 motor car models, opens today in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium.

This twenty-third annual Pacific Auto Show is truly coastwide in its significance and importance in the opinion of Glen Stater, president of the Motor Car Dealers Association of San Francisco.

"Here on one floor and under one roof the motoring public of Northern California and the motor car dealers of the Pacific Coast have their first opportunity to view the complete line of all the American makes of automobiles," said Stater.

"The new cars are well worth the careful study and inspection of the shopping public for the manufacturers have really offered many new features, many new body designs,

LABOR PRAISES NEW PENINSULA BOOSTER GROUP

Crown Sees Program
As Employment
Stimulus

Labor enthusiastically endorses the announced community development program of the San Francisco Peninsula, Inc., according to J. P. (Jack) Crown of San Mateo, who represents the San Mateo County Building Trades Council on the Board of Directors of the new "booster" organization.

"It is obviously to the benefit of every one engaged in business, or living on the Peninsula to encourage building and employment," he points out. "Not only does this increase payrolls and spendable income, but it also reduces the relief burden for taxpayers and in another way improves the tax situation by creating a market for any property that may have reverted to the community through tax delinquency."

"The construction of new homes and business buildings tends to increase or maintain the value of all nearby property. It is well-known that when a new home goes up in a tract the value of adjoining lots is substantially raised and their sale expedited. The same thing is true of a business block. As a business street develops, the price per front foot of remaining lots, and the salability of existing buildings are generally stimulated."

Crown added that every Peninsula community may confidently expect to profit by the forthcoming advertising, which is expected to start before the opening of the San Francisco Fair.

"The surest way to keep the building trades and other workers employed," he said, "is to assure a constant demand for homes and other buildings; and the best way to accomplish this is to advertise and attract desirable new families and investors."

"Daly City and San Bruno will benefit along with Palo Alto and all communities between—for each will attract its proportion of new families, according to their income, personal taste, and the distance they are willing to commute. Our 'S. F. P. I.' program contemplates promotion of industrial development in South San Francisco, which in turn will stimulate demand for nearby residential property on the part of workers, to the advantage of the more northerly communities. The same thing is true of Redwood City Harbor; and of course new San Francisco commuting families will spread out over the entire Bayside residential area."

The Coastside will come in for its share of "dividends," the labor leader concluded, as more and more people discover its unrivaled recreational facilities and agricultural opportunities, which it is planned to publicize in the advertising.

Gay Comedy For Curran

If scintillating wit, light, frothy comedy, ludicrous situations provoking hilarious laughter appeal to you, then you'll want to be sure to see "THE TORCH-BEARERS," George Kelly's gay comedy of the "little theater movement," which Homer Curran and Luther Greene will present at the Curran Theater for a limited engagement starting on Monday evening, November 14.

Nearly all of the characters of the play are in the purple. They include Fred Ritter, the business man whose wife, Paula, has been stung by the histrionic bee. Upon the scene appears Mrs. J. Duro Pampinelli. If she were a man it is quite possible she might be selling radio or glider stock. She is the high priestess of the little theater movement and has convinced all the society butterflies and their empty-headed he-satellites that their forte lies in the realm of grease-paint.

"THE TORCH-BEARERS" is the name of the play, within a play, which these ardent uplifters of the drama and the lower social strata are giving as a benefit in aid of the Seaman's Institute—"for the poor sailors who must be protected."

Constance Collier, for whom Noel Coward wrote "Hay Fever," returns to the local footlights as the very pompous Mrs. J. Duro Pampinelli, the little theater apostle. Others in the cast of New York favorites are Clay Clement, Florence Shirley, Clare Verdera and Ottola Nesmith.

Under the expert direction of author George Kelly, "THE TORCH-BEARERS" will take audiences backstage, in one of the funniest second acts ever written, to witness a rare privilege of seeing all the mishaps that take place while these amateurs present their play for the worthy charity. But it seems that the charity is more worthy than the "performance." It would be unfair to give away all of the rare fun in "THE TORCH-BEARERS," suffice it to say that it is a riot from start to finish.

CIRCULATION DRIVE

The Daly City Record will shortly begin an intensive circulation program to acquaint all Daly City residents and organizations with the publication.

As a special feature of the drive free Christmas cards will be given to new subscribers.

many new mechanical advancements in their 1939 cars.

"There has also been a general shuffling of prices—mostly downward—so that the buyer of motor cars will find that this year he gets a great deal more for his money than ever before in automobile history.

"In addition to the colorful display of new cars the entertainment program this year surpasses any featured attraction at any recent motor car display here or at any other American Auto Show. Rudy Vallee comes to San Francisco direct from a series of engagements in New York City and the Atlantic Coast, bringing with him a troupe of fifty entertainers and musicians."

Most of the regional offices of the motor companies are holding dealer and salesmen's gatherings during the week. Many of the eastern manufacturers have sent sales executives to San Francisco to attend the biggest coast auto show and to address dealer gatherings here.

Managing this year's show are two veterans in the automobile business, George Wahlgreen, for 23 years manager of the San Francisco display, and Tod Bates, manager of the San Francisco Motor Car Dealers Association. The two men have spared neither time nor effort in their work to make this the greatest of all exhibits.

The show opens at 10 o'clock this morning, and Rudy Vallee makes two appearances daily, one at 3 p.m. and one at 9 p.m. The show runs from today to November 19, inclusive. On the opening day, Saturdays and Sunday, the show opens at 10 a.m. and closes at 10:30 p.m. Other days it opens at 12 noon and closes at 10:30 p.m.

TIRE FACTS

Here are some general conclusions about tires from L. G. Evans, General Service Manager of the National Automobile Club, which are well worth remembering:

1. Brakes should preferably be applied gently, because when sudden application locks the wheels, the tires have less grip on the pavement than when they are turning against firmly applied but not locked brakes.

2. Skidding is affected by types of road surface, speed, amount of moisture on the road, dust film, and even filler used between bricks or material used between joints of other type pavements.

3. On wet pavements as speed increases, friction between tires and road decreases, and so does tire traction.

4. Sole function of a tread in reducing skidding on wet pavement is to wipe the pavement dry, so the rubber in contact with the road can get its best grip.

5. Effective tread design must be of a pattern that provides wiping action plus channels for the quickest possible flow of water from under the tire.

News bulletins will flash hourly across an 8x10-foot cinema screen on the outside of the Christian Science Building at the 1939 California World's Fair.

FIND VIRGINIA CITY REPLETE WITH COLOR

Comstock Lode at Virginia City, Nevada, is replete with historic tales and always arouses the intense interest of the visitor, according to the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club. The city lies about forty-five minutes drive, over a new smooth hard-surfaced highway, from Reno. The new Geiger Grade, climbing from the valley floor at 4,500 feet to the summit of Virginia range at about 6,000 feet, affords one of the finest scenic drives in the entire west, reports the Nevada Highways and Parks. Where the old grade had steep stretches, up to 12 per cent, the new grade offers pitches of 6 per cent or less and a scenic travel lane over which motorists may drive in high gear.

"Geiger Lookout" has been developed so that travelers over the Grade may tarry and observe the view and gorgeous sunsets of the Reno Region, on the way to the summit. An area of about two acres at a strategic point nearly a thousand feet above and overlooking Truckee Meadows floor has been fitted with facilities for refreshments. Fireplaces and lookout stations, constructed of colored native rock, rustic tables and shelters, have made this one of the most popular halting places on this scenic and historic highway.

Traffic Accidents Increase In Winter

The trend of traffic accidents in proportion to volume of travel turns sharply upward in the fall months and continues to rise until late in the winter.

This was emphasized by the public safety department of the California State Automobile Association in a statement this week pointing to the need for increased caution in driving at this time of the year.

"The increase in accidents in the fall despite the decline in travel mileage is a yearly condition with which safety workers are well familiar," the statement continued. "Longer periods of darkness and the effect of wet weather on visibility and road surfaces evidently are the main reasons for the rise in accidents."

"So far this year, traffic fatalities are running about 20 per cent below last year's tragic total. Much of this improvement will be lost if the accident curve shoots upward again this fall and winter."

"By taking every possible precaution, motorists everywhere can help to continue the improved safety record that has brightened the traffic accident picture this year."

WPA Statistics Show Progress

Donald Renshaw, state director for the National Emergency Council for California, made the following statement this week:

"The Works Progress Administration has constructed, through its works program, more than 700 miles of new highways, roads, and streets, including nearly 300 miles with paved surfaces. Improvements have been made to more than 3,500 miles of other roads, and, in addition, 98 miles of new road shoulders have been built and more than 300 miles of shoulders have been repaired. The highway system was further benefited by the construction of 158 highway bridges, and the reconditioning of 234 others. Other drainage structures included 3,800 new culverts, nearly 100,000 linear feet of new roadside ditches, 78,000 linear feet of new pipe, and 500 miles of new curbs or gutters."

"A total of 1,035 new public buildings were erected on WPA projects and an additional 1,370 were otherwise improved. Of the 1,035 new buildings, 90 were schools, 159 were recreational buildings, including auditoriums, stadiums, grandstands, and gymnasiums; 104 were administrative or office buildings, and 12 were fire houses. More than 486 of the 1,370 buildings improved were school buildings, and 110 were recreational buildings; the remainder included 98 courthouses, offices and other administrative buildings."

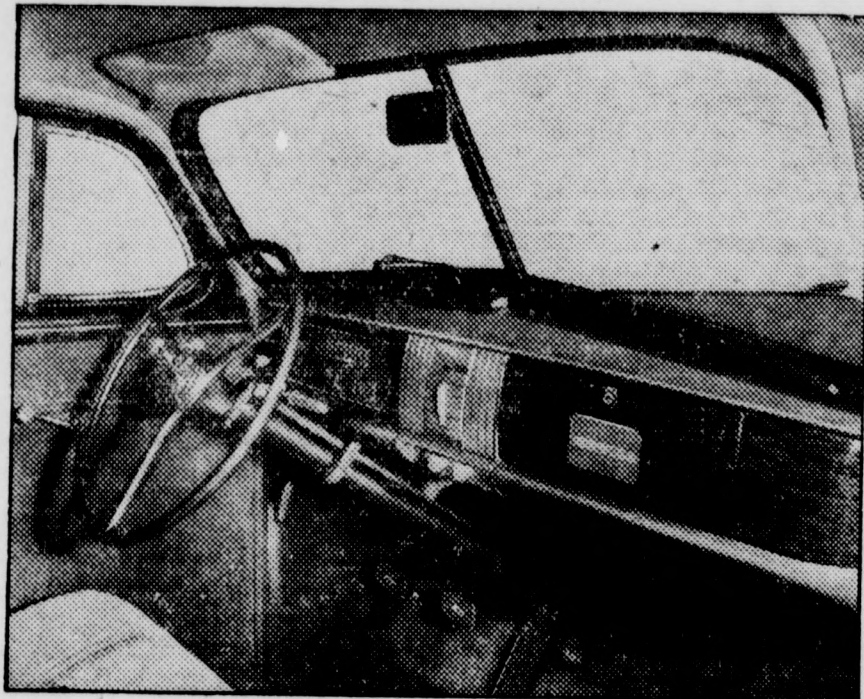

To Assemble Mercury 8 At Richmond

The new Mercury 8, the Ford Motor Company's newly announced entry in the lower medium priced field, will be assembled at the Richmond, California plant, it was announced today by C. A. Bullwinkel, branch manager.

The Richmond Branch plant is one of five of the sixteen Ford Motor Company branch assembly plants in the United States where the new car will be assembled. These plants are located at Dearborn, Michigan; Edgewater, New Jersey; Kansas City, Missouri; Louisville, Kentucky and Richmond, California.

"During the last few months," Mr. Bullwinkel said, "workmen have been engaged in installing new fixtures and other equipment for the assembly of new Mercury bodies. Operations to be conducted here also will include the painting and trimming of the bodies, chassis assembly and the final assembly of the car. Production of 1939 models is now under way and will be," he said, "stepped up as rapidly as possible in order to supply cars to dealers in the territory to be served from this city. The Richmond Branch is scheduled to assemble 2,675 units during the month of November, of which 735 will be new Mercury cars."

PLYMOUTH SETS SAFETY RECORD FOR INDUSTRY

Also Important
In Drive

"Safety First" as the No. 1 rule in the world's biggest auto assembly plants now is recognized as both good morals and good management, according to Harry G. Mook, sales vice-president of Plymouth Motor Corporation, in an address before this year's National Safety Congress, just concluded in Chicago.

The auto officially appeared at the annual safety meeting as representative of the industry's "Honor Roll" company for 1937. The big Plymouth factory qualified as the safest automobile plant for the year, with no deaths or permanent injuries during nearly 14 million man-hours worked in 1937.

"Selling safety is as fundamental in the auto industry as selling motor cars," Mr. Mook said. "To do an effective job of selling safety to the public, our efforts must begin back in the shops, practicing safety among ourselves and preaching it to every man on the job."

"In our business, there's another 'man on the job' who is just as important in our safety picture. That's the man at the steering wheel—and we have every reason to feel proud of the work we've done in selling safety to him, too."

"Today, the experienced motorist has learned to demand efficient brakes, body construction of safety steel, scientific features of safety styling that protect the passengers in case of sudden stops. And for 1939, Plymouth now introduces another important safety 'first'—a safety-signal speedometer that automatically flashes front lights right under a driver's eyes."

"At Plymouth, we're proud of the safety record attained inside our factory. And we're equally proud of our 1939 contribution to American motorists for safer driving next year, as another important step in selling safety to the public, too."

Locally, the new Plymouths are shown at Donahue and Laufenberg, Mission Auto Company and Pantaleoni Brothers. These three dealers cordially invite all Daly City to inspect the new cars.

AT OUR SHOWROOMS NOW

New Dodge Has Automatic Features

It is evident that Dodge engineers have gone to considerable lengths in making the operation of their new Luxury Liner models as independent as possible of manipulations formerly calling for driving judgment and experience. Thus the new Dodge cars are equipped with automatic choke, automatic spark advance, automatic carburetor heat control, automatic regulation of cooling-water circulation, etc.

Though the new Dodge gearshift is not automatic in the strict sense, the driver operates it "with the greatest of ease," without having to take his hand from the vicinity of the steering wheel.

Pantaleoni Brothers are showing the Dodge locally.

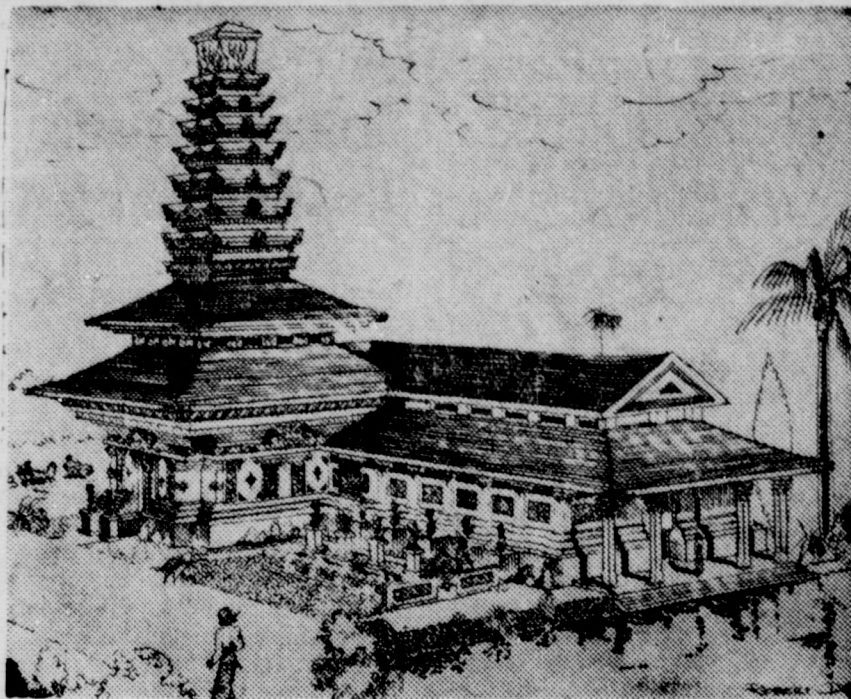

Golden Rule For Traffic

Two out of every five people killed in traffic are pedestrians. Whether it is the driver's fault or the pedestrian's, it is certain that the pedestrian gets the worst of it whenever there is a collision. Since every driver is a pedestrian, too, at some time or other, the Golden Rule is a cardinal principle for all. Drive as you would want others to drive when you are walking. And as a pedestrian, cross the street or highway as you would want others to cross when you are driving. It is not only the courteous thing to do—it is the safest. And speaking of courtesy, we offer this little doggerel on passing from a bulletin of the National Safety Council:

When someone honks his horn to pass,
Let up a little on the gas.
It's wise to let him safely through—
Someone may do the same for you.
SAN MATEO COUNTY TRAFFIC SAFETY COMMISSION.

Some of the rare Polynesian feather capes owned by South Sea island kings will leave possession of the royal family for the first time to be exhibited at the 1939 California World's Fair.

Netherlands Indies Building for Fair

Featuring Hindu, Javanese and Balinese architecture, this photo shows a drawing of the Netherlands East Indies Building, which exhibits native art and customs at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Plans for the building were completed recently by Robert Deppa, Dutch architect from Batavia, now in San Francisco. The East Indies pavilion will be two intricately constructed buildings depicting the native carving craft.

To Open District Health Office Here

Improved general public health and clinic services will be assured residents of Northern San Mateo County with the opening of the Colma District Office of the Department of Public Health and Welfare, Monday, November 14, according to Dr. Charles C. Gans, director of the entire San Mateo Public Health department.

The new offices, located at 7375 Mission street, next door to the Colma post office, are the official center for public health service to residents of Daly City, Colma, Lawnsdale, South San Francisco, Brisbane, Bayshore, Edgemar, Sharps Park, Pedro Valley, Vallemar, Rockaway and all unincorporated areas adjacent to these towns.

A doctor, a nurse and a social service worker will be available at the new district headquarters. Residents may call the office, Randolph 1170 at any time, although general clinic services will be given on Monday of each week only, beginning at 9 a. m. A sanitary inspector will be on duty every day except Sundays, Saturdays

DRINKING and DRIVING

Traffic moves fast. Emergencies pop up too quickly for befuddled minds to handle safely, reports the Safety Department of the National Automobile Club, in repeating the slogan: "If you drink, don't drive—if you drive, don't drink!"

Leaving the car at home if a drinking evening is planned, is a wise practice. A split second's slip, at the wheel may have tragic, lifelong consequences.

It is as important to teach children to cross the street safely as it is to teach them to brush their teeth and wash their hands, according to the Safety Department of the National Automobile Club. Parents should not only set a good example, but should show children how to cross at the corner, instead of running across in the middle of the block.

urday afternoons and holidays. All sanitary complaints should be registered at the Colma district office.

In case of emergency in illness or accident cases will be cared for by the community hospital in San Mateo.

SUPERVISOR WARNS WINE MAKERS

James H. Maloney, supervisor, Alcohol Tax Unit, Fourteenth District, comprised of California, Nevada and the Territory of Hawaii, recently made the following announcement:

"Internal Revenue laws provide that wine may be manufactured for home use, free of tax, by heads of families on compliance with certain requirements.

"Namely, every person (other than the operator of a bonded winery) entitled to, and desiring to, produce still wine for the exclusive use of his family must prepare form 1541 'Registration for Production of wine for the family use of the producer thereof not in excess of 200 gallons and not for sale or to be otherwise removed or consumed,' in duplicate, file one copy with the District Supervisor and retain the other. The form must be filed at least five (5) days before commencing operations, and must be renewed each succeeding year during which it is desired to produce wine for family use.

"The forms may be obtained with any further information desired by writing the office of the Alcohol Tax Unit, Room 142, Federal Office Building, San Francisco."

Constant awareness of the danger is the motorist's only certain protection against carbon monoxide, the poisonous gas generated in the exhaust of the automobile, reports L. G. Evans, General Service Manager of the National Automobile Club. Never run an automobile in a small garage with the doors closed an instant longer than is necessary to back out. If the engine needs warming up, complete the process outside.

Children Attend Toy Symphony

The toy symphony and harmonica class that is being conducted at General Pershing School under the auspices of the WPA each Monday afternoon, is attended by a large class of students. Children are still being enrolled.

The cafeteria opened Monday at the school for the winter months with Mrs. Sadie Welsh as chairman. A well balanced menu has been planned for a nominal sum charged the children. Volunteer workers are serving the luncheon.

The study and sewing circles met at the home of Mrs. Ann Lucas on Irvington street Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Otha Kinsey is chairman of the study circle and Mrs. Lucas is chairman of the sewing circle.

Mrs. Ilda Marquis, president of General Pershing P. T. A., attended the Teachers Institute held in Burlingame on Thursday.

Darkness comes earlier these days and with darkness comes danger in driving, according to the Safety Department of the National Automobile Club. Wise motorists will slow up when driving home from work and avoid taking chances with accidents.

The modern auto has been so perfected that there is a tendency on the part of owners to take its smooth and faultless performance for granted, and therefore neglect it, according to L. G. Evans, General Service Manager of the National Automobile Club. In no particular is neglect more harmful to a car than in lubrication.

CHECK BRAKES

All drivers should know the condition of the brakes on the car and know if they can stop if an emergency arises, especially during the rainy season, according to the Safety Department of the National Automobile Club. Many accidents occur because of brakes in poor condition.

ARMISTICE DAY 1938

When faces turn east toward Flanders' fields this Armistice Day, they will look out upon a world that has fought much, suffered much, and learned little, since the big guns ceased firing in the Rhineland.

The first years that followed the jubilant day when a "Cease firing!" order carried its electrifying message round the earth seemed, indeed, to hold a promise of enduring peace for a war-sickened world.

But who can say as much today, with the furnaces of munitions plants casting their ruddy glare across virtually every nation as if mocking the will of all peoples toward peace? And with the most utterly vanquished nation in that struggle twenty years ago now become the virtual lord and master of a continent, while a great power of the Orient successfully threatens to subdue another continent by violence?

Yet if America sees the war spirit mobilizing elsewhere and, while safeguarding herself with rearmament, chooses to keep herself disentangled, it is because she hates war, not fears it! A titanic struggle that took from the world 23 million lives, made refugees of 10 million, and orphaned 9 million, indicts itself as mankind's most terrible enemy and well merits that hate.

That the valiant men America honors this day fought only to win the world enduring freedom from the bondage of war gods, entitles them to our high regard. The world needs no better ideal than theirs. Could the world learn to sacrifice for peace as boldly as they sacrificed for war, the shadows of future Armageddons need never darken another Armistice Day!

SHORT TALKS

By Lloyd E. Ellis

BELOVED SON

"And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" Mt. 3: 17.

This term was applied to Jesus after he had proven himself—when he had grown up in "favor with God and man." He had lived all his early years, at his home, working in obedience to Joseph and his mother. He had been learning the laws of God and man and had observed the same.

He had come thus far in his life, living in such a way that God said that he was pleased with him. If he had not been living in accord with God's laws, his Father would not have made the statement in which he declared his pleasure in the life of his Son.

If men desire to be acknowledged as Sons of God, they too must present themselves to God through obedience to his laws which apply to them. Assurance is given to men that they will be heirs with Christ, if they live the life on earth which the Son set forth for men to live. One who presents himself to God for recognition in Glory, having come any other way than the Way of the Cross will be dismissed in disgrace. Men should draw nigh to God, remembering that if they will so do, that he will draw nigh to them.

CIVIC PROGRESS

By Mayor Selmi

At groundbreaking ceremonies held here last Saturday for our new city hall I could not help but feel a great civic pride.

Paul G. Selmi

This ceremony marked the climax of a long struggle to give our city administration more adequate housing and facilities. It is undoubted that the better equipped to serve we are the better job we can do of making Daly City an A-1 community in which to live.

In line with civic progress is the work of a new organization, San Francisco Peninsula Inc. which has recently been brought to my attention. The council has appropriated $500 to aid in this worthy drive to publicize the advantages of the peninsula in regard to both business and home interests. I feel that the council's appropriation will bring great returns to Daly City as this new booster group is working actively for the growth of each community concerned. Especially apt, I think, is their plan to draw attention to individualistic features of each different town in view of attracting the type of residents and businesses that each is best suited to serve.

Christian Science Lesson Sermon

In all Christian Science Churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., a Lesson-Sermon will be read on Sunday, November 13, on the subject "Mortals and Immortals."

The Golden Text will be: "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (II Cor. 5: 17). Bible selections will include the following passage from I Peter 1: 24, 25: "For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you."

A passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which reads as follows: "Mortals are not like immortals, created in God's own image; but infinite Spirit being all, mortal consciousness will at last yield to the scientific fact and disappear, and the real sense of being, perfect and forever intact, will appear" (p. 295).

CHILDREN SCARCE IN '49

In the days of '49 children were seldom either seen or heard. This sidelight on old California is noted in "Almanac For Thirty-Niners," compiled by the Federal Writers' Project in Northern California, which will be published November 20.

One evening, during gold rush days, a certain lady took her infant to the theater. "When it began to cry, just as the orchestra began to play, a man in the pit cried out 'Stop those fiddles and let the baby cry. I haven't heard such a sound for ten years!'" The audience applauded this sentiment, the orchestra stopped, and the baby continued its performance, amid unbounded enthusiasm.

San Mateo Jaysee Has Active Schedule

San Mateo Junior College gridders will enjoy a bye this week end, but the following week they will play Santa Ana Jaysee in San Mateo. The southern college is reported to have a powerful squad.

Last Friday evening the San Mateo football squad invaded the southern part of the state for the first time and defeated San Bernardino 13-7, in a game that broke San Bernardino's winning series off after 22 victories. San Mateo excelled in kicking and passing and scored both its touchdowns on passes.

Final practice is being held on "Three Corners Moon," the comedy the college will present November 17 and 18 in the college auditorium.

San Mateo Jaysee faculty have endorsed the idea suggested by E. A. McAllister, journalism instructor, that they plan and finance a faculty grove on the new college campus. A committee is now working out details.

Mrs. J. Richardson Lucas, noted lecturer of the Bay area who recently returned from England, addressed the Adult Center Forum Monday evening at the college. She spoke on "Fascism knocks at Number 10 Downing Street."

Contributions of Western States to the automotive industry will be depicted in the Ford Building at the 1939 California World's Fair.

PUPPET SHOW ENJOYED

Children throughout the Jefferson School District enjoyed a puppet show on Tuesday through the courtesy of the Shell Oil company. A Christmas play was presented after which each child throughout the district received an attractive box of candy. Students at Woodrow Wilson Elementary School were particularly interested because, under the capable direction of their language teacher, Mrs. Lewis, the students have a Puppet Club in their own school.

Observe Education Week At Schools

At the request of District Superintendent Crane, Jefferson Elementary Schools observed American Education Week by opening the school for the entire week to visitors and limiting their exhibit to room displays only. Attractive exhibits were arranged in all rooms and parents visiting the rooms were interested to see the life-like activities carried on in the modern school. The craft and domestic science exhibits were especially fine.

Scores of movie stars will be on parade before the public in the "Hollywood Boulevard" concession at the 1939 California World's Fair, where every step in making movies will be shown.

AND
P. T. A. ACTIVITIES

HIGH SCHOOL P. T. A. TO HOLD MEETING

The regular meeting of the Jefferson Union High School P. T. A. will be held next Tuesday evening in the main auditorium of the High School. The program will be especially interesting to the men and everyone is urged to attend. There will be a very short business meeting.

The rummage sale will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, November 16 and 17, in one of the vacant stores at the top of the hill. Anyone wishing to assist in this sale should get in touch with Mrs. Martha Linden at once.

EXECUTIVE BOARD TO MEET MONDAY

Seventeenth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, executive board will convene at 1:30 o'clock, Monday afternoon, November 14, in the Little Theater of the Burlingame high school.

This meeting will be of particular interest to the unit presidents. Miss Victoria Russell, past district president, will be the guest speaker and Mrs. B. D. Ralston will preside. The publicity class met Wednesday morning, November 9, instead of the regular time, Thursday, in order to avoid a conflict with the Teachers Institute Meeting, held Thursday, November 10.

One hundred thousand persons have previewed Treasure Island, site of the 1939 California World's Fair.

WOODROW WILSON P.T.A.

The Woodrow Wilson P. T. A. will meet Tuesday afternoon, November 15, in the Woodrow Wilson School for the regular monthly session. The program will feature "The Child's Health." Mrs. Emilie Lohr and others will speak. The children's program will be under the direction of Miss Mosconi. Everyone is invited to attend.

The next sewing will be held at the home of Mrs. Laston, 112 Santa Barbara avenue at 1:30 o'clock.

GOODWILL CONGRESS SPEAKERS AT JEFF HI

The Goodwill Congress, meeting in San Francisco this week, has provided two excellent speakers for Jefferson Union High School.

Mr. Linley Gordon, extension secretary of the World Alliance for International Friendship, addressed the student body last week.

Monday afternoon, Rabbi Ferdinand Isserman of St. Louis, addressed a special assembly. He described vividly a recent visit to the battle fields of France and told in a graphic manner his impressions as he viewed the land where millions of lives were lost. Dr. Isserman further stressed the point that war is not only a physical loss but a material one as well.

Tulips, 250,000 of them, will grace the courtly landscape of Treasure Island, sent to the 1939 California World's Fair by the Holland Bulb Association.

Ann Welcome to Talk At Crocker P. T. A.

Ann Welcome, noted lecturer and writer, will be the speaker at Crocker P. T. A., Tuesday, November 15, at 2 o'clock. All members and their friends are invited to attend.

The recreation chairman, Mrs. Ann Eason, will speak on "Fair Play in the Play Ground," and Miss Pfeifers' class will give the school's part of the program.

The program chairman, Mrs. Mildred Seiler, will have the annual programs ready for each member on Tuesday. These programs are beautiful souvenirs of Crocker as well as a great help during the year.

Final plans have been made for the magazine luncheon which is to be held on Wednesday, November 16, at 12 o'clock sharp at the Crocker School. Those who have already taken the magazine from some other Unit are invited to attend the luncheon and whist which follows. Those who wish to attend this meeting are urged to get in touch with Mrs. Olga Bordson, Del. 5861.

The executive board met at the home of Mrs. Virginia Davidson on Wednesday and the Sew and Sew's at Mrs. Pauw's home on Thursday of this week.

The meeting next Thursday of the Sew and Sew's will be at the home of one of the new members, Mrs. Ann Lutzker, 1154 Brunswick street. The ladies are to meet and visit the Daly City Library at 10 o'clock on Thursday, November 17, and go directly from there to Mrs. Lutzker's home.

Mrs. Davidson, Crocker's president, was the guest of Miss Aileen Suber at the teacher's institute in Burlingame yesterday.

San Jose State Meets Redlands

San Jose State, one of the nation's nine unbeaten and untied major football teams, defends its season record of eight straight victories against Redlands today at San Jose.

The contest, which will be the fourth straight Armistice Day meeting between the two schools, will see and injury-ridden Spartan squad face the unpredictable razzle-dazzle play of a team which boasts what is perhaps the most unorthodox attack of any squad on the Pacific coast.

San Jose, still the highest scoring major college squad in the nation, is fighting injuries and the danger of a "let-down."

Coach Dud DeGroot's rampaging crew, who have amassed 249 points in eight wins, latest of which was a methodical 20-0 win over Santa Barbara State, face three more games after the Redlands contest today — the San Diego Marines, Arizona State of Flagstaff and the University of Hawaii.

The game today will be staged amid the customary military pageantry of Armistice Day.

A question box will be provided at the dental exhibit at the 1939 California World's Fair, and dental problems will be answered without charge.

PLAN PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN AT 1939 FAIR

Theatre, Hobby Shows, Handicraft Among Features

Functional fun and once-upon-a-time fantasy will share honors in fascinating children at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on San Francisco's man-made Treasure Island. A varied program of activities is planned for youthful visitors to the World's Fair of the West.

The complete recreational program, recently announced by the California State Commission to the Exposition, includes a fully equipped Recreation Building. It favors children, and among the facilities for youngsters are a small theater for dramatic productions and puppet shows, a hobby and craft exhibit room, junior museum, library, a model playground, and an ideal back yard with an open fireplace. There groups of children may have day or evening parties and listen to the dramatized folk tales of various countries.

For children who like to work with their hands, there'll be three work rooms where woodcarving, metal craft, basketry, weaving, leather tooling, model making, and other crafts will be demonstrated and taught.

Special emphasis will be placed on gardening, and small plots will be available for children's groups.

Purely for rollicking fun for children at the Golden Gate Exposition, will be the four-acre Fantasy Village, a concession where Mother Goose rhymes and favorite childhood fairy tales will come to life.

Large Group Attends Teachers Assn. Meet

Over one hundred and fifty teachers of San Mateo County attended the dinner of the San Mateo County Teachers' Association which was held at Jefferson Union High School last Monday evening.

Clive M. Saiz, president of the association, presided at the brief business meeting and introduced a number of guests, including Mrs. Stella Jensen, president of the San Mateo County School Trustees Association and Mrs. Hazel Benninghoven, vice-president of the Seventeenth District Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Beniamino Bufano, famous sculptor, known chiefly for his Saint Francis of Assisi statue, was the speaker of the evening. Mr. Bufano used as his topic "The American Renaissance." He paid tribute to teachers by stressing the fact that future civilization depends upon them.

FATHERS' FORUM PLANS MEETING

Mother Lode Attracts

From the Mother Lode country comes the report that autumn colorings of red and gold are rapidly reaching their zenith, and will provide a colorful background for trips through that section, reports the Stockton Office of National Automobile Club.

The Toyon Berries, more commonly known as "Red Berries" in the vicinity of Jackson are just beginning to turn. A few heavy frosts will complete that work and there will be an abundance of berries; however, motorists are cautioned that it is illegal to pick the berries unless permission is obtained from property owners.

T. S. Eliot Drama Opens At Alcazar

Most important of all plays presented by the San Francisco-Oakland Federal Theatre will open at the Alcazar, Monday, November 14, when T. S. Eliot's poetic tragedy, "Murder In The Cathedral" will have its San Francisco premiere.

Daniel Pennell, whose characterization of the Rev. Paul Duquesne S. J., in "The First Legion" at the Columbia Theatre two years ago won wide recognition for its excellence, has been chosen by Director Gordon Lange to portray the part of Thomas a Becket, the martyred Archbishop of Canterbury around whose death the play revolves.

First theatre in this country to present "Murder In The Cathedral" was the New York Federal Theatre Project. Such was its success that it ran for months.

"Having Wonderful Time," the Arthur Kober prize winning comedy of life in an Eastern mountain summer resort, closes tomorrow night, after a highly successful run at the Alcazar.

San Jose Drama Stars Canine

Choosing the best acting talent available and picking out a play with a dog in it—just to be sure of a hit—the San Jose players, thespian group at San Jose State College, are presenting as their second play of the current season James Bridie's "Storm in a Teacup."

"Patsy," the dog who causes the many difficulties which beset the characters of the play, was formerly the pride of the local pound, but has adapted himself to his collegiate surroundings without any trouble.

The leading parts, aside from "Patsy," are taken by Melvin Cochran of Redwood City and Raber Davenport of Los Altos.

"Storm in a Teacup" will be given November 17 and 18 in the College Little Theater. Miss Margaret Douglas directs.

Following this production, the Players will go on the boards with "Moor Born," by Dan Tothoroth. This is the story of the Bronte sisters, Emily, Charlotte, and Anne, famous in English literary history.

BIERCE EPISODE IN WPA BOOK

One of California's most spectacular literary men once shot another man down simply to prove his friendliness. The strange story was reviewed by the Federal Writers' Project of the Works Progress Administration while compiling "California: A Guide to the Golden State," which will soon be published.

The marksman was the vitriolic satirist Ambrose Bierce, whose disappearance remains an unexplained chapter in our history. In December of 1913, a few days before he vanished from human knowledge, Bierce was with the Mexican constitutionalist army which was fighting revolutionists near Tierra Blanca. He was not enlisted in the army, apparently was there principally to see the excitement. Since he wore no uniform and did not fighting, his Mexican comrades became hostile, accused him of being a gringo spy. At this distrust Bierce seems to have been uneasy. During the next battle he suddenly snatched a rifle from the soldier nearest him, took careful aim, drew a bead on a man in the opposing army and coolly shot him down.

Bierce told the story himself, in a letter to a friend in the United States. He closed with the words, "Poor devil! I wonder who he was!"

High School Presents "Eleven Million"

"Eleven Million," one of the most dramatic plays ever offered to a Jefferson Union High School student body, was presented this week in commemoration of the Armistice.

Members of the cast were as follows: Priest, Willard Mitchell; sweetheart, Pearl Daly; General, Elliott Sidey; Banker, Leon Fletcher; Nurse, Charlotte Weait; Mother, Maximae Morris; Munitionmaker, Sam Watso; Dead Soldiers, La Joie Mon Santo, Charles Yonan, Ben Rosenberg, and Evan Gillespie.

Willard Mitchell did an outstanding piece of work in portraying the priest. Other parts were well played, too. Mr. William E. Hoppe's directing was said to be superb, reaching a new height, locally.

Henry Ford and other internationally famous personages are to attend the World Congress of the Society of Automotive Engineers on Treasure Island at the World's Fair of the West.

Urge Californians To Join Red Cross

One hundred twenty-four Red Cross chapters in California are urged by A. L. Schafer, Red Cross manager in the Pacific Area, to enroll a minimum of 421,925 members in the annual Roll Call, Armistice Day through Thanksgiving Day. The national objective set by Chairman Norman H. Davis, Washington, D. C., is six million adult members.

California chapters last year enrolled 301,845 members, or 5.32 per cent of the state's population. In 1926 these same units won the honor of enrolling the highest percentage in the nation, and brought to California the Roll Call Honor Flag. Nevada now holds this emblem with an enrollment of 10.95 per cent.

A compilation of Red Cross activities in California shows that floods which swept northern, central and southern California counties during the year, constituted three disaster relief projects in which 5,910 families were given assistance. Contributions within the state to the Red Cross relief funds totaled $455,963.

Plans of the American Red Cross for prevention, relief, and control of disasters will be exhibited by that organization at the 1939 California World's Fair on Treasure Island.

MOTOR CAR SHOPPERS

The motor car shopper will find things of interest to him or her in the new models which will be so colorfully displayed in the big main auditorium and the two side rooms at San Francisco's spacious Civic Auditorium during the Auto Show week. He will probably be impressed by the number of new and attractive colors in which the 1939 cars are finished. All motorists will also be pleased, or so think the automobile men, with the new interior roominess, the greater vision that manufacturers have provided by larger windshields, smaller posts, bigger windows. Many of the makes have moved the gear shift lever out of the front compartment up on the steering post or on to the dash, thus making the front compartment of these cars more roomy and shifting, according to the claims of the manufacturers, easier and safer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Guenter and family of Santa Cruz were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ottoboni of Mission street Sunday of this week.

Daly City Theatre Shows Two Features

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the Daly City Theatre will show two outstanding pictures. The first is "The Crowd Roars," with Robert Taylor and Maureen O'Sullivan, Taylor playing his first prizefighter role. Things happen fast when a Park Avenue beauty, played by Maureen O'Sullivan, falls in love with the prizefighter. Here is Robert Taylor in a vigorous, two-fisted role that every woman will love and every man will applaud. Frank Morgan, Edward Arnold and Jane Wyman contribute splendid performances in support of Taylor and Miss O'Sullivan.

"Mother Carey's Chickens," the second feature, brings to life the characters that for two decades have thrilled American readers through the power of the written words of Kate Douglas Wiggin. Anne Shirley and Ruby Keeler play the inseparable sisters, Fay Bainter is seen as Mother Carey and Jackie Moran and Donnie Dunagan portray the Carey youngsters.
